A Visit to 27th state of Republic of India, Devbhoomi Uttarakhand gave an opportunity for our students to know more about people, culture, traditions, geography, about languages of Uttarakand in a broader sense.

The people of Uttarkand Famed for their simple lifestyle, honesty, and humility, the people of Uttarakhand reflect a sincere bond with nature and gods. Although, the state has a fair amount of cities that are plush with all state-of-the-art amenities and crowd from other parts of the country, however, this could not take the people of Uttarakhand away from their culture and traditional values. The culture of Uttarakhand still revolves around its traditional ethics, moral values, the simplicity of nature and a rich mythology.

Folk cultue: The event gave a epic experience about the folk tradition of the Uttarakand at the time of video session which included the many dance forms like Chhopati, Chounphula, Jhumeila, Basanti, Mangal Barada Nati, Bhotiya Dance, Chancheri, Chhapeli, Choliya Dance, Jagars. The same dance forms are experienced at the time of cultural events presented by the college students.

The taste buds were dancing for the tasty foods of Uttrakand. Daal, Bhaat, Kafuli, Gahat ke Paranthe, Bhang Ki Chutney, Aalu Ka Jhol, Kumaoni Raita, Jhangora Ki Kheer and many more to experience the great tastes of Uttakrand Students got introduced to many local instruments used by the people to exhibit their folk culture and cultural events played a major role to exchange and express the traditional culture from both the sides

The Inhabitants: Kumaoni (Inhabitants of Kumaon Region) and Garhwali (Inhabitants of Garhwal Region) the major two region divisions gave raise to two major inhabitants. Students got an opportunity to know more on the difference of habitats, followings, cultures, traditions of the Uttarakand people in the time of cultural events, Language sharing sessions, local visit of places.

Students' interactions are the major steps to exchange an idea of EK
